Internship Certificate

This is to certify that Mr. Manav Rajpurohit (BE, Computer Engg, Terna Engg College), Mr. Atharva Dandge (BE, AI and DS, Terna Engg College) and Mr. Rachit Pal (BE, AI and DS, Shah and Anchor Kutchi Engg College) have worked under my guidance during July-September 2024 on the project Leaf Classification and Disease Detection, using AI techniques.

The dataset consisted of images of leaves, categorized for both plant identification and disease detection. Approximately 30,000 images were collected from publicly available datasets such as Indian Medicinal plants and other open-source resources. The system was built using Python, using Tensorflow with Resnet CNN model.

The work has been completed satisfactorily, and I wish them all the best for their future endeavours.
